The fund is an alternative investment fund as defined in the Act on Alternative Investment Fund Managers that invests primarily in syndicated leveraged corporate loans issued by Nordic and European companies. Leveraged corporate loans are corporate loans in which the borrower is a company whose credit rating is BB+ or lower (sub-investment grade credit rating), and which the company acting as a borrower uses for financing, for instance, an acquisition, growth investments, or infrastructure or real estate investments, possibly using leverage, in order to increase the efficiency of the company's capital structure.

Investment term

Fund units may generally be redeemed twice each year on the fund's general redemption dates provided that the redemption order has been submitted to the Management Company in advance within the set time. The Management Company may, at its discretion, decide to dissolve or merge the Fund or its unit series. The Management Company has the right to redeem a unit-holder's units on its own initiative in the exceptional circumstances described in the Fund's rules.

Objectives

- The fund's investment objective is to achieve a predictable and steady cash flow for investors in the form of fixed income returns and value increase in investment instruments when it is appropriate. In addition to other characteristics, the fund promotes environmental and social characteristics and requires that target companies observe good governance.
- In addition to Leveraged corporate loans, the fund's assets are invested in bonds and other debt instruments. Intended retail investor

The Fund suits private investors i) who want to invest in a Nordic fixed income asset class with a fixed income portfolio that is efficiently diversified, ii) who want to invest in floating-rate and secured corporate loans arranged by Nordic banks, and iii) who seek solid return potential on their fixed income investment also in a rising interest rate environment. Investors must have a sufficient understanding of the fund's investments and be prepared to bear the potential financial risk associated with the investment. ## WHAT ARE THE RISKS AND WHAT COULD I GET IN RETURN?

The overall risk indicator expresses the level of risk of this product compared to other products. It indicates how likely the product is to lose money because of market events or because the product developer is unable to pay the investor. On a scale from 1 to 7, the risk category of the product is defined as 3, which is a medium-low risk class. Potential future losses are rated at medium-low, and poor market conditions unlikely to affect the ability of the management company to pay the investor. The risks that the risk indicator may not necessarily fully take into account are i) liquidity risk, ii) credit risk, iii) currency risk, and iv) equity risk. For more information on risks, see the fund prospectus.

Be aware of currency risk. The currency of this unit series may be different from that of your country. As the investor may receive payments in the currency of this unit series and not that of the investor's country, the final return will depend on the exchange rate between these two currencies. This risk is not considered in the indicator shown above.
